MOTION TO STAY ORDER GRANTING PREJUDGMENT REMEDY PENDING APPEAL

Pursuant to Connecticut General Statutes §52-278l, the Defendant, Yulia Gilshteyn, hereby moves to stay this Court's order granting the Plaintiff's Prejudgment Remedy on the following grounds:

1. The Court issued its decision granting the Plaintiff's Application for Prejudgment Remedy on 3/15/23.
2. The Defendant filed her Appeal of that judgment on 3/22/23.
3. Pursuant to CGS §52-278l, this Court can stay that order following its determination of a bond with surety in a sum sufficient to indemnify the Plaintiff for any damages which may accrue as the result of such a stay.
4. In the present case, there are no discernable damages which may accrue as the result of such a stay.

THEREFORE, the Defendant asks this Court to issue a stay pending the appeal of the judgment without a bond, or to determine a sum sufficient and issue a stay and allow the Defendant to post such bond with surety.

Respectfully Submitted,

Yuliya Gilshteyn, The Defendant
